BERNSTEIN LIEBHARD LLP
SELECTED FOR THE HOT LIST 7 CONSECUTIVE YEARS

THE PLAINTIFFS' HOTLIST 2009

BERNSTEIN LIEBHARD

New York's Bernstein Liebhard represents institutional and individual investors in shareholder, class and derivative litigation. Some of the largest pension, health and welfare funds engage it to monitor their assets and pursue action when necessary. Established in 1993 as a boutique, it now has 30 attorneys.

NOTEWORTHY CASES

- In re Initial Public Offering Sec. Litig., No. 21 MC 92 (S.D.N.Y.). Lead counsel Stanley D. Bernstein is chairman of the plaintiffs' executive committee. After more than eight years in litigation, the team reached a global settlement of $586 million with 309 defendants in the largest securities class action on record. The suits alleged that, between 1998 and 2000, issuers and investment banks manipulated initial public offerings to artificially inflate the price of the securities.

- In re Beazer Homes U.S.A Inc. Sec. Litig., No. 1:07-CV-725-CC (N.D. Ga.). Co-lead counsel Jeffrey M. Haber and Joseph R. Seidman Jr. The firm represented a union trust fund in accusing Beazer Homes of making false and misleading statements about its loan and mortgage origination practices. The case settled for $30.5 million after two years in court.
