Twenty-five go-to teams

This is the seventh year for the NLJ's Plaintiffs' Hot List, our survey of the country's most impressive plaintiffs' firms. We asked our readers to nominate firms in the United States that did exemplary, cutting-edge work on the plaintiffs' side between the summer of 2007 and the summer of 2008. Firms needed at least one significant win and an impressive track record within the previous three to five years. A "significant" win meant prevailing in a bench or jury trial when the stakes were high, such as a substantial amount of money, or the case could affect the litigation strategy or outcome of similar cases nationally. Eligible firms needed to devote at least 50% of their litigation resources to plaintiffs' work.

2008 Even global crises have a bright side

1 of 15 firms selected

Bernstein Liebhard, which is devoted exclusively to plaintiffs' class action litigation, focuses on securities and shareholder actions, but also maintains active consumer, mass tort and antitrust practices. The firm's more than 45 lawyers in New York and Pennsylvania have more than 200 completed trials to their credit.

NOTEWORTHY CASES:

■ In re Royal Dutch Shell Transport Sec. Litig., No. 04-374 (D.N.J.). Lead counsel Stanley D. Bernstein, Jeffrey M. Haber, William A.K. Titelman, Mark T. Millkey, Caroline Marshall and Michael S. Bigin. Years of work paid off in March, when Royal Dutch Shell PLC agreed to pay at least $89.5 million, and as much as $180 million, to settle claims arising from alleged overstatements of its oil and gas reserves. The case set the stage for other firms representing non-U.S. investors to reach a $350 million settlement.

■ In re UnitedGlobalCom Shareholders Litig., No. 1012-VCS (New Castle Co., Del. Ch.). Co-lead counsel U. Seth Ottensoser, Gregory Egleston and Jeffrey Lerner. Bernstein lawyers drafted pleadings, took depositions, worked with experts and helped prepare for trial. A $25 million settlement was reached on allegations that a minority-exchange transaction with United's majority shareholder did not meet the entire fairness standard.

■ In re Telik Inc. Sec. Litig., Civ. No. 07cv4819 (S.D.N.Y.). Lead counsel Stanley D. Bernstein, Sandy A. Liebhard, Timothy J. MacFall and Joseph R. Seidman Jr. The firm represented the Policeman's Annuity and Benefit Fund of Chicago and negotiated a $5 million settlement of allegations that Telik issued false statements about the results of its clinical trials for a cancer drug.

2007 The plaintiffs' bar isn't dead yet

1 of 13 firms selected

Long known for blazing trails in securities and shareholder class actions, New York-based Bernstein Liebhard has been active lately in litigation over the value of companies being taken private. It has been appointed lead or co-lead plaintiffs' counsel in emerging securities class actions against Fannie Mae, Beazer Homes and others. Partner Stanley D. Bernstein was recently appointed by the Court as chair of the plaintiffs' executive committee in In re Initial Public Offering Securities Litigation. The 51-attorney firm has offices in New York and Pennsylvania.

NOTEWORTHY CASES:

■ In re Cigna Corp. Securities Litigation, Master File No. 2:02 CV 8088 (E.D. Pa.). Co-lead counsel Francis P. Karam, Timothy J. MacFall, Stephanie Beige, Brian S. Cohen and Michael S. Bigin. Karam melded documentary evidence with video from the deposition of Cigna's chief executive to devastating effect in this class action over whether the insurer was candid about a botched computer system upgrade.

■ In re Cablevision Sys. Corp. Shareholders Litigation, No. 05-009752 (Nassau Co, N.Y., Sup. Ct.). Co-lead counsel U. Seth Ottensoser and Gregory M. Egleston. Company founder and controlling shareholder Dolan Family Group offered $21 per share to take the company private, but the plaintiffs considered that inadequate. The firm blocked the deal and was instrumental in negotiating and structuring a deal whereby the Dolans withdrew their offer and paid a dividend worth $2.5 billion.

■ In re Lumenis Securities Litigation, Master File No. 2:02-CV-1989 (S.D.N.Y.). Co-lead counsel Jeffrey M. Haber and Gregory M. Egleston. The case alleged that the company resorted to fraudulent accounting practices to pad its earnings statements. With a motion to dismiss pending, the company agreed to pay $20.1 million to settle the action. The underlying matter also inspired a U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission investigation.

2006 A different sort of trial for plaintiffs

1 of 11 firms selected

In its 13-year history, the 42-lawyer New York firm Bernstein Liebhard has built a reputation for tenacity on behalf of clients in consumer and securities fraud and corporate governance matters.

NOTEWORTHY CASES:

■ In re Initial Public Offering Securities Litig., No. 21 MC 92 (S.D.N.Y.). Stanley D. Bernstein, vice chairman of the plaintiffs' executive committee, helped negotiate a $425 million settlement with JP Morgan—this on top of the $1 billion in settlements already reached over the alleged manipulation of companies' values between 1998 and 2000.

■ Westchester Day School v. Village of Mamaroneck, No. 02 CIV 6291 (WCC) (S.D.N.Y. 2006). Lead counsel Stanley D. Bernstein. Local zoning officials first signaled yes but then said no after the neighbors complained about an Orthodox Jewish school's expansion plans in October 2001. A federal judge, invoking the Religious Land Use and Institutionalized Persons Act, sided with the school following a seven-day trial.

■ In re Royal Dutch/Shell Transport Securities Litigation, No. 04-374 (D.N.J.). Lead counsel Stanley D. Bernstein, Jeffrey M. Haber and William A.K. Titelman. In protracted litigation over Shell's 5.8 billion-barrel overstatement of its oil and gas reserves, Bernstein won a key interpretation of the Supreme Court's Dura Pharmaceuticals v. Broudo ruling that will allow investors to press claims even if they continue to hold their stock.

2005 These are the firms to watch

1 of 12 firms selected

Long recognized for its representation of private money managers and investors in securities class actions, Bernstein Liebhard has been a pioneer in representing such institutional investors as public and union pension funds. The 32-lawyer New York firm is lead counsel representing two Pennsylvania public pension funds suing Royal Dutch/Shell for overstating its petroleum reserves by 5.8 billion barrels—equal to one-third of its proven reserves. The disclosure caused a precipitous drop in the corporation's value. The firm wins notice this year for its role in some historic settlements.

NOTEWORTHY CASES:

■ In re Initial Public Offering Securities Litigation, No. 21 MC 92 (S.D.N.Y.). Co-lead counsel Stanley D. Bernstein is vice chairman of the plaintiffs' executive committee. This case represents 300 coordinated actions alleging the market value of companies brought public between 1998 and 2000 was manipulated by corporate officers and directors and their investment bank underwriters. On Feb. 15, U.S. District Judge Shira A. Scheindlin gave preliminary approval to a settlement worth at least $1 billion. Bernstein Liebhard takes credit for suggesting the agreement require the issuers to cooperate with the plaintiffs in the continuing litigation against the investment banks.

■ In re Deutsche Telekom A.G. Securities Litigation, No. 00-CV-9475 (NRB) (S.D.N.Y.). Co-lead counsel Stanley D. Bernstein. U.S. District Judge Naomi Reice Buchwald approved a $120 million cash settlement on June 9 in this action arising from one of history's largest global securities offerings. The German telecommunications giant Deutsche Telekom A.G. was accused of failing to disclose that it was in advanced acquisition talks with VoiceStream Wireless Corp. at the time of its offering, and of overstating its real estate assets by at least $1.8 billion.

■ In re Royal Dutch/Shell Transport Securities Litigation, No. 04-374 (D.N.J.). Lead counsel Stanley D. Bernstein, Jeffrey M. Haber, Mark T. Millkey. A key ruling by U.S. Chief District Judge John W. Bissell on Aug. 9 extended the court's jurisdiction over claims of shareholders who purchased their shares outside the United States. Since Royal Dutch/Shell estimates that 92% of its securities trade is overseas, the decision makes this potentially the largest securities case brought on behalf of foreign investors to date. It also provides an avenue for relief for investors outside the United States with no claim in their own jurisdictions, the firm notes.

2004 Results come before reputation

1 of 20 firms selected

Devoted exclusively to plaintiff class action litigation, the 29-lawyer Bernstein Liebhard has recovered hundreds of millions of dollars for its clients in awards and settlements since its establishment in 1993. While the firm's primary focus is securities and shareholder class actions, it is also active in consumer protection and antitrust litigation. It was recently appointed as sole lead counsel in Royal Dutch/Shell Transport Securities Litigation, representing the Pennsylvania State Employees' Retirement System and the Pennsylvania Public School Employees' Retirement System.

NOTEWORTHY CASES:

■ Footstar Inc. Securities Litigation (S.D.N.Y. 2003), Lead counsel Frank Karam. A securities class action alleging massive accounting fraud by a footwear retail chain, the firm negotiated a partial settlement of $14.3 million. Litigation against other defendants is ongoing.

■ SeeBeyond Technology Corp. Securities Litigation (C.D. Calif. 2004), Lead attorney Frank Karam. The defendants were accused of accounting fraud. The plaintiffs brokered a settlement for $13.1 million.

■ Cyberguard Corp. Securities Litigation (S.D. Fla. 2004), co-lead counsel Jeffrey Haber. A firewall software developer was accused of accounting fraud. The court approved a $10 million settlement.
